

Social Butterfly wants nothing more than to be famous. In fact, she is sort of famous for being famous. She uses her stunning good looks to pick up followers on social media outlets. Social Butterfly is a huge new media star on her homeworld of Andromeda. Everyone is interested in what she is up to. Whether it's what she ate for breakfast, the kind of workout she just finished, or what new gadget she got in the mail, the world just can't get enough of Social Butterfly! However, the cost of fame can be astronomical!

Becoming a victim of a tax evasion scandal and her reputation tarnished, Social Butterfly was forced to leave her home planet to get a fresh start. She found her way to Earth where she planted roots in Paris, France. The people of Earth were excited by this new alien beauty, and Social Butterfly became an instant social media darling. The people of Earth didn't seem to be bothered by her past legal issues, in fact, they kind of liked her more for it!

Being in Paris, Social Butterfly became interested in the Knight's School Wrestling Academy that happened to be in her neighborhood. After checking it out, Social Butterfly realized how popular wrestling was, especially in the social media market. It was at that moment that she decided to become a wrestler. The Last Knight agreed to hire Social Butterfly as a backstage reporter as he trained her for the ring.

At the Knight's School Wrestling Academy, Social Butterfly wasn't very popular among her peers. Everyone thought she was just there to get famous and lacked any real passion for the sport. In particular, Di-Smash was annoyed with Social Butterfly's constant selfie and status updates she would post during training sessions. Di-Smash made it to the NDW roster a lot quicker than Social Butterfly, and this didn't sit well with the alien. Naturally when Social Butterfly got called up to the roster, she set her sights on Di-Smash!
